

Role profile

Position	Engineering Operative
Department	Engineering
Location
Reports to	Dock supervisor / Shift supervisor

Role and purpose

- To undertake all semi-skilled and unskilled tasks relating to the maintenance of depot vehicle fleet and depot premises, safely and in accordance with statutory and business requirements.
- Work as part of the team in the Engineering Department at depot.
- Develop good relationships with colleagues and relevant personnel in other departments of Dublin Bus and CIE Group of Companies.

Working relationships with

Engineering employees and engineering department management team
Local Operations supervisors
Health and Safety Department team
Other Dublin Bus departments as required

Areas of responsibility

Safety

- Comply with Dublin Bus Safety Statement and responsibilities set out in the 'Safety in Engineering Handbook'

Maintenance

- Assist with failures and changes as required
- Shunt buses around yard (cleaning, refueling, parking etc)
- Battery maintenance, greasing, refueling and changing oil on buses
- Check and replenish all fluids on buses
- Cleaning and vacuuming buses and premises (including chassis cleaning)
- Undertaking minor repairs and maintenance tasks on buses

General

- Other duties applicable to position as agreed with management

Competencies

The following competencies represent the sets of knowledge; skills and abilities required for the position and are based on the role and responsibilities attached to this position.

Safety awareness

- Aware of safety issues related to own role and department
- Follows all health, safety and security procedures

Teamwork / Flexibility

- Works effectively with other to accomplish tasks and goals, and to find solutions to problems
- Is a responsible and co-operative team member
- Ability to work with others in a positive and supportive way
- Able and willing to work in different roles and shift patterns

Commitment / Resilience

- Ability to give required attention to detail and quality of work
- Ability to meet deadlines and work under pressure

Interpersonal skills

- Ability to interact effectively with others and maintain good working relationships
- Treats others with courtesy, sensitivity and respect

Other requirements

- Full clean driving licence (category B and category D licence)
- Fluent spoken and written English
- Be available to work shifts, including nights, weekends and public holidays